AAR 2024 2023 2022 2021 2016	1. The Municipality of Jimalalud did not effectively follow the guidelines and procedures specified in COA Circular No. 2020-006 dated January 31, 2020, regarding the one-time cleansing of Property, Plant, and Equipment (PPE), thus affecting the fairness of presentation of the PPE accounts amounting to ₱401,762,927.72 in the financial statements at year-end and depriving the government's access to reliable and useful information for decision-making and accountability for these assets.	We recommend the Municipal Mayor to issue an Office Order creating the Inventory Committee with adequate members, including at least one member from each of the Accounting and Property Divisions/Units, and temporarily relieve them of all their regular duties until the physical inventory process is complete. We further recommend that once created, the Inventory Committee: a. Strictly follow the guidelines and procedures for conducting the physical count of PPE. This includes recognizing PPE items found at the station and disposing of items that are non-existent or missing. The Accountant and Property Officer should reconcile their records based on the results of the actual	Municipal Mayor to create an Inventory Committee to conduct physical count and prepare Inventory Report. AAR 2014	27. The Municipal Government of Jimalalud paid its officials and employees a Productivity Enhancement Incentive for CY 2014 in excess of the amount of ₱5,000.00 each allowed under EO No. 80 dated July 20, 2012 as implemented by DBM Budget Circular No. 2014-3 dated December 2, 2014, thereby resulting in the disallowance of the total unauthorized payment of ₱629,000.00.	We recommend that the persons liable for the excess payment of the CY 2014 PEI immediately restate the same to the government, in accordance with Section 11.0 of DBM BC No. 2014-3. Henceforth, Management shall strictly observe the applicable regulations on the grant of any benefits/incentives and verify against double payments to avoid similar disallowances. We further recommend that the Municipal Accountant prioritize the submission of the employment documents of the Barangay Bookkeepers and the financial records showing the sources of funds from the barangays and the corresponding payments therefrom.
